

Press release:

Disappearance of Patrick Verbruggen, co-founder of Triangle Génération

It is with great sadness that Triangle Génération Humanitaire announces the death of its co-founder, Patrick Verbruggen, after a long illness which he faced with his characteristic elegance. Christian Lombard, co-founder, head office staff, expatriate staff, local staff and members of the Board of Directors are today united in paying tribute to a man and friend who has been committed to humanitarian action for almost 40 years.

A man of conviction and experience, but also a man of humour, Patrick knew how to unite teams and share his incredible enthusiasm, which has enabled TGH to play a growing role in helping populations in need over the last 30 years.

Thank you, Patrick, for your unwavering and inspiring commitment to the end.

Anyone wishing to do so can send a message to the following address:
